

UN-HABITAT YOUTH FUND

Empowerment of Urban Dalit/saltpan workers youth in livelihoods for social and economical security

This project is sponsored by UN-HABITAT YOUTH FUND, Kenya. It is a model project for promotion of youth belonging to Saltpan Workers in that 300 youth are to be empowered in skill training and livelihoods.

UNHABITAT Training in Cairo, Ms.R.Magayarkarasi participated from ROSI Foundation

Inaugurations function and project opening ceremony : It was done in Vedaranyam Pensioner building in that 255 people from target area participated. Ms.Shenbagam chaired this programme. Mrs.N.Malarkodi, Vedaranyam Municipal chairman started the programme and addressed the importance of the urban youth equipment and development. She explained how UN-HABITAT YOUTH FUND programme is useful to the target people. Ms.R.Mangayarkarasi Coordinator explained the activities of the project.

Computer training : This training has been organized for 25 youth, who have finished the training successfully in the first 3 month. The second batch of the training for another 25 youth is ongoing.

Computer training

Certificate issued for computer training beneficiaries in the completion of course

Garments making training : This training are to be completed by 50 girls in the two training centre in June 2012 and the second batches of 50 girls will start the training in July 2012.

Napkins making training: 40 girls completed the napkins making training as first batch and second batch is undergoing in to the training by another 20.